

ALMAGUIN'S TURTLES

AN IDENTIFICATION GUIDE

BLANDING'S TURTLE

Greyish brown to black shell with yellowish flecks, bright yellow chin and throat; bulging eyes, 12-18 cm.

Threatened.

MIDLAND PAINTED TURTLE

Red markings on edge of shell; yellow stripes on neck and legs; 11-14 cm.

Special Concern.

NORTHERN MAP TURTLE

Brown shell with light yellow "map" markings; yellow markings behind head, neck, legs, and tail; jagged shell rim; 9-27 cm.

Special Concern.

SNAPPING TURTLE

Light brown to black shell; long tail with "dinosaur like" spikes; 20-36 cm.

Special Concern.

SPOTTED TURTLE

Black shell with yellow spots; yellow/orange spots on neck, legs, and tail; 9-12 cm.

Endangered.

WOOD TURTLE

Brown shell with distinct ringed, wood-like texture, often found on land; 14-20 cm.

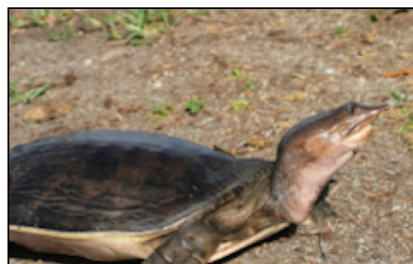

Endangered.

STINKPOT (MUSK) TURTLE

Olive to black, high domed shell, two light yellow stripes on head; light yellow spots on neck, legs, and tail; 5-12 cm.

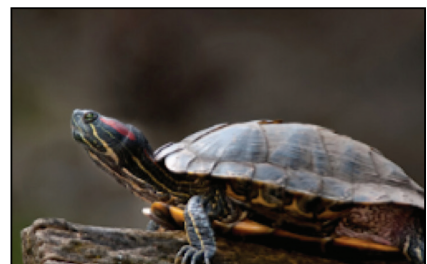

Threatened.

SPINY SOFT SHELL TURTLE

Flat, soft, olive to brown shell; very long neck, pig like snout; 12-43 cm.

Threatened.

RED EARED SLIDER

Green and yellow shell and skin; green head with a red stripe behind each eye; 12-20 cm.

Non-Native Species.

NEAR NORTH
ENVIRO-EDUCATION CENTRE

SCAN FOR MORE INFORMATION:

INFO@NNEEC.CA

